

Sacramento Area Veterinarians

The Sacramento House Rabbit Society makes NO CLAIMS regarding these recommendations. Our policy is to list only those veterinarians recommended by House Rabbit Society members.

Be sure to check out any vet before placing your rabbit's life in their hands! Ask them questions. Make sure you're comfortable with the vet. Don't assume that because one veterinarian at a pet hospital is experienced with rabbits, all are. A recommended veterinarian may no longer be at the location listed in this list, so be sure before you visit the pet hospital. If you call for an appointment with one of these vets, and you are told by the receptionist that they are "extremely busy" and are offered an appointment with one of their associates, insist on seeing the vet you asked for.

When calling a vet listed by the HRS, please tell the vet that you got their name from the House Rabbit Society.
